听下面一段材料，回答第 15 至第 17 题。

M Hey, do you know about the maypole dancing (仲夏柱舞) in the UK?

W No, what's that?

M It's a tradition during spring where people dance around a tall pole with coloured ribbons.

W Sounds a bit strange! Why do they do it?

M It's just to welcome the spring. It has a long history, actually.

W: That's pretty cool. Do they have any other special traditions?

M Oh yeah, like giving and receiving Easter eggs.

W Huh, we have something similar here but with different meanings. Amazing how cultures vary, isn't it?

M: Absolutely! It makes the world a more interesting place.

My favorite hobby is cooking. I started cooking when I was in primary school. I loved eating my mom's yummy food. She showed me how to cook, and after that, I began to try new recipes myself. Cooking lets me try different tastes. It's a great way to show love by making delicious meals for friends and family. Sometimes it can be hard, especially when it's not so delicious, but sharing a good meal is more important. Cooking also helps me relax after a long day. I learn that being patient is important, and with each meal, my cooking gets better. It's not just about feeding people; it's about bringing everyone together to share stories and enjoy good food.
